The tabletop is available in various finishes: oak veneer, solid oak, colored laminates, or lacquered colors. The Rib Table comes in three versions: the Rib Table Bistro for hospitality use, the Rib Table for home use, and the Long Rib, a large table up to 5.5 meters, ideal for offices and libraries. Philippe Allaeys

The foam block is covered in felt, available in various colors, utilizing a special and unique upholstery technique.

Plank Cabinet

Steven Wittouck

The Plank Cabinet finds its origin in the everyday sight of loose planks casually leaning against each other in the wood workshop, as the craftsmanship progressed. From this seemingly random arrangement, an idea was born, a desire to transform this apparent chaos into a structured and elegant piece of furniture. By paying careful attention to the positioning and balance of the planks, we have created a cabinet that is not only functional but also makes a visual statement.
